PUBLIC SPEAKING!

HON. FRANCIS G. NEWLANDS

The nominee of the Silver Party of Nevada for Member of Congress, and the HON. THOMAS WREN,

Silver Party nominee for Presidential Elector, will address the people of Nevada on the political issues of the day as follows:

Reno	Oct. 17
Virginia	Oct. 18
Carson	Oct. 19

The Silver Leagues in the several places will please make the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

Geo. S. Nixon, Chairman,
H. P. Flannery, Secretary.

Gibraltar.

This famous stallion will stand for the season at the ranch of John Sweeney near Carson City. Gibraltar is the sire of Homestake whose record two years ago was 2:14 1/2.

Commercial Lunch.

There will be served during the Summer a regular commercial lunch at Anderson's lunch counter in Weiland's saloon. It will be a hot lunch with soup, beer, tea, coffee or milk, for 25 cents. It is proposed to make this the best lunch in the city for the money, and will run from 12 to 2 o'clock.

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his stock.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle.

Benton's Liniment for sale at all drug stores.

The Capital Lodging House has been reshingled, repainted and renovated, making it especially desirable for lodgers. The bar is stocked with nothing but first-class goods. Opposite South front of Capitol building. Mrs. Jennie Forrest, proprietress.

A GIRL'S ACT OF BRAVERY

A Big Fire in California.

A SPANISH-AMERICAN OUTBREAK THREATENED.

Smuggled Chinamen Captured—An Anarchist Up for Murder.

Special to the APPEAL

A Cool Girl.

Hazleton, Pa., October 14—Miss Lena Scholler, awoke this morning just in time to discover a burglar in her room. With remarkable coolness she drove the intruder from the house and saved the other members of the family, who had been chloroformed. It was shortly after midnight when Miss Scholler was aroused by a noise in the room. The figure of a man crouching behind a curtain was plainly outlined in the moonlight. Seeing that he was discovered the burglar made a break for the stairs and disappeared.

The young woman tried to arouse her sister, but failed. She rushed to the room occupied by her mother. Here she found the latter and a young sister motionless and to all appearances dead. Hastening from the house Miss Lena aroused some neighbors. When they arrived she was coolly applying restoratives to the other members of the family, who soon revived.

Spanish vs. Chinese.

Los Angeles, Oct. 14—Spanish Americans threaten to burn the Chinese quarter, owing to the murder of a Spanish boy in Inijada by Chinese last night.

Coolies Crossing the Line.

Troy, N. Y., Oct. 14—Twelve Chinamen, who were being smuggled from Canada, were captured tonight among the cargo of canal boats.

Francois on Trial for Murder.

London, Oct. 14—The famous French anarchist, Francois, was arraigned in the police court today, on the charge of murder. He claimed innocence.

A $60,000 Fire.

Kingsburg, Oct. 14—The loss by fire here today will reach $60,000. Two blocks of business houses, shops and stores were destroyed.

The Genoa Post Office.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 14—J. R. Johnson was appointed Postmaster at Genoa, Douglas Co. Nev., vice C. P. Young, removed.

Last Evening's Speaking.

Last evening Congressman Bartine the Republican nominee for Senator spoke at the Opera House to a fair sized audience, on the best method of attaining free coinage, and at the same time keep in with the nominees of the Shylock gold bug candidates. He did not seem to make his idea quite plain to his audience, although the office holders on the lower floor applauded heartily.

Card of Thanks.

We tender our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for the kindness and manifested sympathy during our recent bereavement. Affliction comes to all, but we hope that in that hour of need, they will find as many ready to assist them.

J. T. and E. Atkins,
A. P. Dority and family.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—From the Holstein ranch, a sorrel mare four years old, with white strip on face running off to left side. She has no brand, but the right fore knee is rather large. The finder, or anyone giving information leading to her recovery, will be liberally rewarded by addressing Mrs. S. E. Roberts, care of this office.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

If your watch is out of order in any way you can get it repaired at Golden's by skilled workmen from the best institutions in Europe. The work turned out in jewelry repairing is always finished in the best style and the assortment of goods has no equal anywhere in Nevada.

Stewart, the "fottygraffer," is doing the biggest business ever done in his line in this city. He turns out nothing but first class work.

BARTINE ON THE GRIDIRON.

A Scathing Review of his Reno Speech and His Party.

To Hon. H. F. Bartine:—It was my privilege to listen to your speech at the Opera House in Reno, Monday evening, and I gladly availed myself of the opportunity of hearing one so renowned as yourself, expatiate upon questions of great National importance and expected you to tell your hearers why you still carry Republican colors and why the people should honor you above all others by electing you to the highest office in the gift of the State. Before going to hear you I asked myself what reasons can this man give why the people should elect any man to office who still claims to be a Republican? That you would laud the past of the G. O. P., mention, in passing, the freeing of the negro, praise the McKinley bill, and, as in duty bound, modestly speak of your own praiseworthy efforts to fully remonetize silver, just hint that Mr. Stewart was not nearly so worthy of the high honor as yourself, all of which you did, and, do you know, I thought you might give the bloody shirt just one little wave over the bloody chasin which you did not. Your reference to those pure patriots, those great and God-like men, Sumner, Greeley, Phillips and Beecher, as the founders of the great Republican party was peculiarly infelicitous.

That they were mainly instrumental in forming the Republican party I admit, but why did you not tell your hearers of the after history of each of these great men? Let me do it for you. Sumner, in 1868, opposed the Administration on the Jamaica question, and thereafter repudiated by the Republican party and press. Horace Greeley ran for President on the Democratic ticket in 1872. On the assassination of G. G. Field, Henry Ward Beecher said: "The Republican party is now a band of Roman soldiers, sitting on the ground throwing dice, to see who shall have a share of the Savior's garments. Liberty was imperiled for party plunder." Wendell Phillips said of your party: "Every lover of liberty should therefore toil a day for its destruction."

Do not again claim those men as Republicans of the present day. That they were such when it was a party with principles, true, but when it became an organized band of robbers, whose chiefs traded in the liberties of their country and blood of their fellow men for gold for themselves, they then heaped upon it their curses and maledictions, denounced and left it, and what has your party since done to recall either of them, were they still living, to his former allegiance? Can you tell I cannot. You spoke of Republican principles and Democratic principles. I challenge you to show a single principle that prevades and is a part of either party and I charge in the language of the immortal Beecher that the leaders of both the old parties are nothing now but "a band of Roman soldiers sitting on the ground, throwing dice to see who shall have a share of the Savior's garments."

To name all the crimes of the Republican party I cannot in a column newspaper article, and suffice it to say, that during a rule of twenty-five years, your party has degraded the people of our country from a state of almost perfect freedom to a state of servitude and slavery more degrading and insupportable than was even African slavery. They have polluted the fountain of justice and by their decisions; they have corrupted the people by buying their votes with accursed gold, till the elective franchise is lost in our State and our people are on the very outermost verge of anarchy as is evidenced by the acts of two or three men at the State Capitol who demand, whether justly or unjustly, they neither know nor care, that an additional tax of twenty-five percent shall be placed upon the property of every man in our country. What law can be more arbitrary or unjust? And still there is no escaping its workings except by revolution. Last year the increase was fifteen per cent. This year it is twenty-five per cent. What it will be next year God only knows, but this much is certain; continue the Republican party in power but a few years longer and every holder of a small farm in the United States will be driven from his possessions and his family turned into the streets beggars and outcasts.

Men! Men! Cannot you understand that the present Republican party is in no way allied to the Republican party of 1856? That party was a party of the people and served their interests. The present is a party of the shysters of this country and Europe and well have they, and are they serving their masters; the present Republican party is the party that drove Charles Sumner from its ranks, forced Horace Greeley to ally himself with the Democrats, his lifelong and almost mortal enemies, to whose honor he would sooner entrust the welfare of his country than the ravening wolves who then had control of the party which he had been so mainly instrumental in forming. It is the same party that Henry Ward Beecher likened to a band of thieves and just read this most damning imprecation to the great Phillips against it.

"I distrust and despise the Republicans as hypocrites and time servers as double dealers, as soulless carrion masquerading in the grave clothes of their honored predecessors. They have no right to seek their candidates among high minded and honorable men. Let them choose a fitting leader from among the Tewksbury marshes, the peddlers of the poor men's bones."

No man a traitor to the old Republican party who now leaves it, and I aver that no man can vote for the present head of the ticket and not commit a crime against his country, his neighbor and his posterity. If this is so, why not vote for any man whose candidacy will tend to perpetuate this party in power?

Forgive this digression, I have a few words more to say to you. In your speech you spoke very slightly of the People's party and called us Weaverites. With the exception of one small plank, there is not one word, sentence or utterance in their platform the justice and righteousness of which I cannot fully maintain and prove even against so distinguished and learned a gentleman as yourself. For years I have battled for these principles, not one of which I have not discussed.

While I am no Weaverite, nor the ite to the ism of any man, I thank the Almighty God that I can now strike another blow for the freedom of my country, which has been so sadly imperilled through the Administration of your party, by casting my vote for Weaver and Field. I would as soon it were Field and Weaver or that you yourself were at the head of my ticket were you an exponent of the principles I profess. I have not with intent been offensive and if in my hatred to your party, which to me is a seething, withering, blighting, loathsome mass of putridity, rotten in every joint, I have said one word that has given you or the men who stand with you, personal offense I trust you will attribute it solely to ignorance.

ALL SORTS.

Fair and cooler, according to the flags.

There was a good crowd at Armory Hall last evening.

Don't forget: there is not much time left to register.

Sunday, Oct. 16. Services at the M. E. Church, 11 A. M., and at 7 P. M. Discovery Day Service. All seats free. Henry Pearce, Pastor.

With a Republican delegation in the Legislature from Ormsby and the rest all silver men, what sort of a figure would the Ormsby delegation cut?

The Tribune has already begun to attack the silver ticket personally. The silver nominees are ready to match records with the other side. Let the dance go on.

For a party born on the Fourth of July, the Populist infant is the lustiest four-months-old child ever seen in America. Both the old parties are seeking its aid and support.

Professor Mulder, whose classes and private pupils daily increase, is organizing a class in Reno, and if he gets a sufficient number of pupils, will devote one day of each week to that place.

The Elko Free Press says that Stewart wears his audience telling how he got bills through the Senate. The Elko paper however, cannot, truthfully say that Bartine ever took up any time telling how he got bills through the House.

The APPEAL is compelled to go to press without an answer from Assembly nominee George Meyers to the Mechanic who asked him if he thought $1.50 was good wages. Perhaps Mr. Meyers will answer it in some subsequent issue. Our columns are open free of charge.
